Joseph D. Simon

Joseph D. Simon is a partner with the law firm of Cullen and Dykman LLP in Garden City, New York. He represents financial institutions and other clients on regulatory, corporate, real estate and transactional matters. Mr. Simon is a graduate of the Boston University School of Law and has spent his entire 22 year legal career at Cullen and Dykman LLP.

Mr. Simon is a member of the Lawyers Advisory Committee of the New York Bankers Association. He has also served as counsel to several bank associations, including the Long Island Thrift Mortgage Initiative, the Community Home Purchase Process Initiative and BANC3, an organization started by banks to increase child care opportunities in New York and Long Island. Mr. Simon currently serves as Vice President and a Board member of Harbor Child Care, a not-for-profit child care agency on Long Island.

Cullen and Dykman LLP has been a supporter of the American Kidney Fund for several years, and Mr. Simon served as Golf Chairman of the American Kidney Fund's 2nd Annual New York Golf Classic in 2007.

Mr. Simon and his wife Dana live in Melville, New York. Their son Derek will be entering his sophomore year at New York University in September and their son Kyle will be a junior at Half Hollow Hills High School East.
